Lead Video Clips

1) A 5-minute video segment produced by Weed and Seed, an inner city development organization, is a general description of the lead poisoning problem in Miami. It features images of children living in high-risk areas as well as commentary by public health officials and neighborhood activists. It is quite moving and can be a potent introduction to the lead problem.

2) A local news story on lead contamination and lead poisoning prevalent in inner city neighborhoods.